

THE WEST AFRICAN EXAMINATIONS COUNCIL

BECE FOR SCHOOL AND PRIVATE CANDIDATES, 2022

ENGLISH LANGUAGE 2

FINAL MARKING SCHEME

PREAMBLE

1. There are three parts – A, B and C. Candidates are expected to answer three questions in all, ONE question from PART A and Questions 4 & 5. If a candidate attempts more than one question from PART A, mark BOTH and choose the better of the two.
2. The minimum length of each composition should be 250 words.
3. Mark Allocation: Each composition is to be marked out of a total of 30 marks distributed as follows:

CONTENT	-	10 marks
ORGANIZATION	-	5 marks
EXPRESSION	-	10 marks
MECHANICAL ACCURACY	-	5 marks

4. If a candidate writes on a topic other than the ones set, award zero for Content and mark expression out of 5. The mark allocations for Organisation and Mechanical Accuracy remain unchanged. Award 0 (zero) for Content, Organisation, Expression and Mechanical Accuracy if a candidate copies the passage. However, if the formal features are written correctly, award not more than 1 (one) mark for organization.

NB: The script of a candidate who writes on a topic other than the ones set should be referred to the Team Leader or the Chief Examiner.

5. Each ring should attract a deduction of half a mark ( $\frac{1}{2}$ ). Formal features of a letter should have two rings only counted against the marks for Mechanical Accuracy. Subsequent errors in the formal features should be underlined only.
6. The candidate is expected to demonstrate a good knowledge of the basic rules of the English language. These include concord: subject – verb, noun – pronoun agreement, etc.; the proper use of capital letters and correct spelling of words. The candidate should also be able to use determiners and prepositions correctly and be capable of constructing sentences with all their vital components.
7. PENALIZE
  - (i) each grammatical error.
  - (ii) wrong spelling – the wrong spelling of the same word should be penalized only once.
  - (iii) faulty construction.
  - (iv) punctuation error and the wrong use of the capital or small letter.
  - (v) the pronoun 'I' if written as a small letter (i).
8. Each of these errors should be ringed and half a mark ( $\frac{1}{2}$ ) deducted up to a total of 5 marks.

MARKING SCHEME

QUESTION 1

Write an article for publication in your school magazine on the topic, My Role Model and how he/she has influenced me.

Content: 10 marks

The essay is in two parts: a description of the candidate's role model; and how he/she has been influenced by the role model. Both parts should be well discussed to earn a good mark of 6 or more. Award not higher than 4 marks if only one part is discussed.

Organisation: 5 marks

The following features are mandatory:

- i. Title or heading
- ii. Body
- iii. Writer's name
- iv. Writer's class/form/house

Paragraphs should be well developed and properly linked.

Mark organisation out of 3 marks if a candidate writes the features of a letter.

Expression: 10 marks

The language should be descriptive and formal. Appropriate vocabulary should be used.

The use of slang, colloquialism and contracted forms should be controlled. There should be varied sentence patterns.

Mechanical Accuracy: 5 marks

The candidate is expected to display a good knowledge of concord; tense; spelling and punctuation. He/she should be able to construct meaningful sentences.

QUESTION 2

Write an interesting story that ends with the expression, "Unfortunately, I realized when it was too late that my friend was a wolf in sheep's clothing".

Content: 10 marks

The candidate should show a clear understanding of the expression. Award not more than 4 marks if the story does not bring out the saying. Fables are not acceptable.

Organisation: 5 marks

The story should have a plot, a setting and a conclusion. The paragraphs should be properly developed and well connected.

Expression: 10 marks

The language should be clear and easy to understand. The use of figurative language, direct speech and expressions suitable to the subject matter should be rewarded with 6 marks or higher.

Mechanical Accuracy: 5 marks

As in Question 1 and Preamble

QUESTION 3

Write a letter to your friend describing two ways in which you prepared for your father's birthday party and tell him/her what made the party a memorable one.

Content: 10 marks

The candidate is expected to write a letter in two parts: a description of two ways in which he/she prepared for his/her father's birthday party; and what made the party memorable. The candidate must discuss both parts well to score 6 marks or higher for Content. Mark content out of 5 marks if a candidate writes on only one part. If he/she discusses only one preparation and what made the party memorable. Mark content out of 7.

Organisation: 5 marks

This is an informal letter and the following features are expected:

- i. Writer's address
- ii. Date
- iii. Salutation – Dear + first name
- iv. Subscription – Yours, Yours ever, Yours sincerely etc.
- v. Writer's first name

Ideas should be logically presented; paragraphs should be well developed and properly linked.

Mark organisation out of 3 marks if the formal features are left out/not properly written.

Expression: 10 marks

The language should be chatty and decent.

The use of contracted forms of verbs is expected. Slangs and colloquialism are allowed but should be controlled. Sentence patterns should be varied.
